The issue of the convertible notes is not subject to shareholder approval. The conversion of the convertible notes into fully paid ordinary shares is conditional on prior shareholder approval under ASX LR 10.11 and the Corporations Act and FIRB approval. In the event these approvals are not obtained, the convertible notes must be repaid in cash on the maturity date. Please to the ASX announcement of 19/08/2022 which gives further details of the convertible note facility including how it can be drawn down and how the convertible notes issued can be converted into fully paid ordinary shares.
